- 5.1 The Promotion shall be open to STARTRADER live-account Clients.
- 5.2 STARTRADER employees shall not qualify to participate.

6. Registration and Session Opt-In

- 6.1 To participate in the Promotion, a Client must first register through the STARTRADER Client Portal at any point during the Promotion Period.

- 6.3 To be ranked in a Session, an opted-in Client must, using their own funds, make the minimum qualifying deposit required under Clause 7.2 into their trading account during that Session. A Client must make a qualifying deposit for every Session in which they wish to be ranked; deposits made in one Session shall not carry over to any subsequent Session. The Client must maintain a Net Deposit of not less than USD 300 in the participating trading account at all times in order to participate. “Net Deposit” means the total of all deposits made into the participating trading account from external sources on or after the qualifying deposit, less all withdrawals and transfers out over the same period. Switch Account After Loss: In the event of a stop-out or complete loss of funds on your current promotional account, you can switch account by applying for a new one to participate in subsequent or ongoing promotions, subject to standard verification and eligibility review.

- 6.6 A Client's trading result shall be considered for Session ranking purposes only from the time at which the Client has fulfilled Clauses 6.1 to 6.3, being the later of (i) completion of the relevant Session opt-in, and (ii) crediting of the requisite qualifying deposit to the participating trading account, in each case as recorded in STARTRADER's systems (the "Calculation Start Time"). Only eligible trading activity and PnL recorded from the Calculation Start Time shall be counted. Any position opened before the Calculation Start Time shall be excluded. The Client must also satisfy the Applicable Regions and Client Eligibility requirements set out in Clauses 4 and 5.

- 7.3.2 In the event that two or more Clients within the same Conference achieve an identical Profit Rate, the Client with the higher trading volume (in lots) during that Session shall be ranked higher. Where a tie persists, the Client who made the earliest qualifying deposit during that Session shall be ranked higher.

7.4 Profit Rate Calculation

- 7.4.1 Profit Rate shall be calculated using the following formula: Profit Rate = $\frac{[(\text{Closed PnL} + \text{Floating PnL} - \text{Withdrawals} - \text{Transfer Out}) / (\text{Initial Account Balance} + \text{Initial Floating PnL} + \text{Total Deposits} + \text{Initial Credit} + \text{Transfer In} + \text{Other Source} + \text{Credit In})] \times 100}{1}$.

Each component of the Profit Rate formula shall be calculated from the Calculation Start Time and determined by STARTRADER based on its system records.

- 7.4.2 “Closed PnL” (Realized Profit/Loss) means the total realized gains or losses from all completed trades from the Calculation Start Time to the close of the relevant Session.

| 7.6 Conference Leaderboard and Season MVP

7.6.1 Points earned in every Session shall accumulate within a Client's assigned Conference across the Promotion Period. Points shall not expire during the Promotion Period.

7.6.2 Upon the close of Session 3, all Clients shall be ranked across both Conferences based on their final cumulative Points. The Client with the highest cumulative Points shall be crowned MVP of the Season, and the Clients with the second-highest and third-highest cumulative Points shall be ranked Runner-Up and Third Place, respectively.

If two or more Clients have the same cumulative Point total, the Client with the higher aggregate net deposit amount across all three Sessions, as recorded by STARTRADER's systems, shall rank higher. If a tie remains, the Client with the higher average Profit Rate across all three Sessions, as calculated by STARTRADER's systems, shall rank higher; for this purpose, any Session in which the Client did not participate shall be treated as a Profit Rate of 0%. If the tie still remains, STARTRADER shall make the final determination at its sole discretion, and the decision shall be final.

| 7.7 The 3-Point Contest

7.7.1 STARTRADER may, at its sole discretion, open no more than one bonus scoring window of three days' duration during any Session and shall not be required to open such a window in every Session. The timing of any such window shall not be disclosed in advance. Upon commencement, Clients shall be notified by email, social media, and an in-app notification.

| 7.8 Impact of Withdrawals

7.8.1 Clients are permitted to withdraw funds during a Session. However, withdrawals may impact the Client's final Session ranking due to changes in account equity and Profit Rate.

| 7.9 Result Verification

7.9.1 Following the initial computation of Session results by STARTRADER's automated systems, STARTRADER reserves the right to conduct a full audit and verification of trading activity and submitted data before finalizing Session rankings, Points, and prize eligibility.
